Subject: Publication lists scrubbing

I see that you have completely removed the citation fraud from the publication lists you control, which I gave links (some) for in my original 24 Apr 2013 email to you (at bottom) and reiterate below.

The ethical thing to do would have been to leave and cite the retracted article the way it is supposed to be (see How to Cite)

Herzschuh, U., Birks, H. J. B., Liu, X., Kubatzki, C. and Lohmann, G. (2010), THIS ARTICLE HAS BEEN RETRACTED: What caused the mid-Holocene forest decline on the eastern Tibet-Qinghai Plateau?. Global Ecology and Biogeography, 19: 278–286. doi: 10.1111/j.1466-8238.2009.00501.x

Then included with it a note: "WARNING: FROM DEC 2010 TO APR 2013 THIS CITATION WRONGLY OMITTED ANY MENTION OF BEING RETRACTED. CHECK ALL PREVIOUS USES OF THIS CITATION!"

What you did looks like a coverup. If that is the case, note the attached dated printouts of these lists: as of 27 Apr 2013, after you scrubbed them and with "Last updated" dates; as of 24 Apr 2013 when I notified you of this citation fraud; the Google Cache of these, with various dates in Apr 2013 before I notified you of the citation fraud. Below I also include the links to the Google Caches, below their corresponding link from above; these should exist permanently.

I have also included the Google Cache for the Bjerknes Center for Climate Research publications list, which you have not yet scrubbed.

To rectify this I am making this widely known.

Dr. Duane Thresher
